

LCAP Parent Involvement Planning for 2014-2015

Superintendent's Advisory Council

April 22, 2014

1. Helping Your Child with Homework and Learning
 - How to find background on topics of study, projects.
 - How to use technology resources.
 - How to foster study skills and motivation.
 - How to respond to student needs and when to intervene.

2. Becoming an Educational Advocate for your Child
 - What parents should expect from teachers. What teachers can expect from parents.
 - How to monitor your child's educational progress (Blackboard and Aeries).
 - How to communicate effectively with teachers and the school to get your student's needs met.
 - Navigating the educational structure.
 - Volunteering and taking on leadership roles.
 - Understanding Special Education Policies and fostering positive parent school collaboration in planning to meet student needs.

3. Understanding your Child's Learning and Development
 - Educational expectations at each grade level
 - Overview of CCSS goals, implementation, and how to support your child.
 - Child development and how physical, psychological, and social factors affect students at various age levels.
 - Transition between elementary and middle school.

4. Parent Education
 - Provide more school based English Classes
 - Provide workshops for parents to assist them in improving their skills and becoming aware of adult educational opportunities.
 - Assist parents in finding and using online resources.