

ITINERANT ELEMENTARY VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS TEACHER - GRADES K-6

DEFINITION

Under general supervision, serves an itinerant teacher in grades K to 6, or a combination thereof; creates a flexible program and environment favorable to learning and personal growth in accordance with each student's ability; plans, develops, organizes and conducts a comprehensive education program for students; assists students, parents and others in aiding students in adjusting to a structured educational environment; and does other related functions as required. This position is directly responsible to the Principal assigned.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

This position classification requires subject matter expertise commonly associated with teaching and instruction in visual and performing arts. Directly related teaching and instruction experience is required to perform problem analysis using prescribed principles, methods and concepts. A teacher in this classification performs decision analysis and makes decisions of considerable consequence, in determining how best to aid students in the learning process. The functional role of this position classification requires the application and interpretation of data, facts, procedures and policies. The incumbent meets frequently with school administrators, other teachers, internal staff and members of the community to communicate information, data and alternative problem solutions. This position classification performs light work that involves sitting a portion of the time, but requires walking and standing for extended periods and may occasionally require moving or lifting of up to fifty (50) pounds and operation of a motor vehicle. This position requires accurate perceiving of sound, near and far vision, depth perception, handling and working with materials and objects and providing oral information. The employee is directly responsible for safety, well-being or work output of other people. The position requires the individual to meet multiple demands from several people and interact with the public and other staff. Reasonable accommodation may be made to enable a person with a disability to perform the essential functions of the job.
