Richland High School's Senior Week Announced

ORANGE, Calif., April 26, 2010– Richland High School announced planned activities for “Senior Week” April 26-30. Principal Ed Madrid said that the schedule will be assembly style that is conducive for guest speakers. All speakers volunteered their time to Richland High School free of charge. “The purpose of Senior Week is to offer opportunities for students to learn what options are available to them after life in high school,” said Mr. Madrid. The schedule is as follows:

Motivational Monday –

Assembly #1 – Speaker Rueben Martinez: listed as one of 26 most fascinating Entrepreneurs according to www.Inc.com, he is an owner of Liberia Martinez Books and Art Galleries.

Assembly #2 – When you become 18 – “A Survival Guide for Teenagers” attorney/speaker from the Orange County Bar Association.

ASVAB Test Tuesday – The ASVAB is a career planning and exploration program that combines a multiple-aptitude test with an interest self-assessment and a wide range of career exploration tools.

College Workshop Wednesday –College recruiters will be on hand to provide information to students. As incentive for the 122 seniors, extra credit will be given if they visit all eight college representatives. Schools scheduled to appear:
