PANORAMA ELEMENTARY STUDENTS COLLECT PASTA AND SAUCE FOR HOMELESS CHILDREN

ORANGE, CA (February 22, 2013) – The Panorama Elementary School Student Leadership Team organized a food drive for Caterina's Club in Anaheim and collected more than 850 pounds of the charity's requested items: pasta and sauce.

Caterina's Club was founded by Chef Bruno Serato, owner of the historic Anaheim White House Restaurant, and currently services 300 low-income children every day at two different Boys and Girls Club sites in Anaheim. Panorama's donation will provide more than 5,900 meals to homeless children living in Anaheim motels.

Principal Kathryn Martin stated, "The generosity and caring shown by our students and their families is heartwarming. The 'Panther Leadership Team' at Panorama makes a concerted effort to choose projects that help others, and that is something to be proud of."
